AXE THE IMPOSSIBLE!

11 Kings 6:1-7

We're down by the Jordan, a swift flowing river,
Cutting down wood to make dwelling new,
The water flows free and the cold makes me shiver,
But we're all working well, what a crew!

I heave-ho with all might near the base of a tree,
The axe swings down hard, rebounds, fast flies!
By the time I had ducked it had shot well past me,
Splashed straight down and was gone from my eyes.

"O dear master", I cry, "for the axe had been lent.
And the owner will surely be mad!"
"Fear not" said Elisha, "I know t'was not meant
And with God just expect to be glad!"

Now I tell you, dear friend, he just cut down this stick,
And cast it upon the wet water,
And don't ask of me how, for it sure was no trick,
The axe head did swim! Didn't oughta!.

THE AXE HEAD DID SWIM, yes that is just what I said,
It popped up from out of the river.
And Elisha he said when you trust deep in God
The results may well make you quiver!

Yes the axe head did swim and it shouldn't have done,
And Elisha just smiled for he knew
That the Law of his God was always such fun!
And there's nothing that it could not do!

So when faced with a problem make sure your first thought
Is turned instant to God, who is MIND:
For in TOTAL PERFECTION whatever is sought
Is there waiting! And thus will you find!

... With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.
